

Press Release 20: English Open changes

The organizer of Stop 18 in the European Bowling Tour 2010, the Ebonite English Open, has decided to move the tournament from its December spot to 17-21 November 2010.

The organizer also announces a changed format, where more players can earn by's into later final stages and furthermore a 5 person stepladder final is introduced.

The prize pool is unchanged, but a number of prizes are at various stages adjusted to match with the changed format.

Finally the organizer announces the stepladder final, both to be broadcasted at Sky Sports and Internet streamed.
