European Grand Senior Championships: A Historical Review / Page 1

The European Grand Senior Championships is owned by EBF.

Each edition of the championships is awarded to a host, which can be a federation, a public organization or a company. The host organizes the event in co-operation with EBF's Officials.

Athletes must be 65 years of age or above in the year of the championship.

The first edition of the European Grand Senior Championships was conducted in 2026 in Vienna, Austria with 84 male and 55 female athletes from 22 different federations taking part.

The championships is conducted every second year in the even numbered years.

Each federation can send four men and four women to the championships.

The disciplines for both genders are Singles, Doubles, Team of Four, All Event and Masters.
