World Youth Cup: A Historical Review / Page 1

The World Youth Cup is owned by IBF.

Each edition of the championships is awarded to a host, which can be a federation, a public organization or a company. The host organizes the event in co-operation with IBF's Officials.

Athletes must have reached the age of 13, and must not have reached the age of 21, on 1 January in the year of the Tournament.

The first edition of the World Youth Cup was conducted in 2024 in Lima, Peru (should have started in 2023) with 21 male and 14 female athletes from 22 different federations taking part.

Since the beginning in 2024, the World Youth Cup has been conducted every second year on odd years.

From the beginning the number of athletes per team was 1 girl and 1 boy pr federation

The only discipline is singles for both genders.
