Tournament format

The participants each play 6 qualifying games in the American style. Multiple starts are allowed (re-entry). After every 2 games, there is a lane change of 4 lanes to the right for the even lane pair and 4 lanes to the left for the odd lane pair.

The tournament has 1 ranking (classifications):

- A handicap ranking according to the Swissbowling table

In case of a tie, the best last game scratch will be counted.

The best 32 players and 4 players from the Desperados qualify for the final.

This will be held in different steps.

-Desperado:

1 game following the last qualifying round without lane maintenance. The 4 best players from the Desperado qualify for the Final Step 1.

-Final Step 1:

places 5 to 32 plus the 4 qualifiers from the Desperado play 4 matches. Starting from scratch

-Final Step 2:

The 16 best players and the 4 best players from the qualification play 4 matches. Starting from scratch

- Final Step 3:

The 10 best players play a best of 3 match.

- Final Step 4:

The winners of the match play play a Ste-pladder final.

Tournament tie rules

The highest positioned athlete will be the athlete scoring the highest last scratch game. If a tie still exists, the highest positioned athlete will be the athlete with the highest second last game etc.
