Turbo Round

- Turbo rankings are a separate ranking apart from the grand total rankings, where the athletes with the highest scores in the 5th and 6th games go to the finals. According to these rankings, the two athletes with the highest scores in the 5th game and the two athletes with the highest scores in the 6th game (4 athletes in total) advance to the final round 1.
- Athletes can register for Turbo qualifying for game 5, game 6, or both games 5 and 6. Athletes can participate in the Turbo ranking with more than one score by registering separately for the 5th and 6th games of each round they play, and they are ranked with the highest one.
- Turbo 5 rankings show the rankings of the 5th games, and Turbo 6 rankings show the rankings of the 6th games. If an athlete makes it to the finals from the grand rankings, their scores in the Turbo rounds will be deleted, and the turn passes to the athlete just below. If an athlete reaches the final from both Turbo 5 and Turbo 6, the Turbo 6 score will be valid and the athlete down in the Turbo 5 ranking will be promoted to the top.
- In case of a tie in turbo scores, the tie is broken according to the order in the qualifying rankings. In Turbo scores, women's 8-point bonuses are added.
- Turbo 5 and Turbo 6 rewards are awarded regardless of overall ranking. The athletes with the highest scores in the 5th and 6th Turbo rankings will be entitled to receive the awards.

Desperado

The Desperado rankings are separate rankings where athletes who did not qualify for the final rounds after the qualification squads and the Turbo rankings compete to advance to the final rounds. The Desperado squad is a one-game series played on fresh lane. Accordingly, the top two athletes from the one-game round will advance to the final round.

In the event of a tie in Desperado scores, the qualification round rankings will break the tie. In the event of a tie in the qualification squads, the final game score from the qualification squad will be used. The athlete who finishes higher will also be ranked higher. Women receive an 8-point bonus on their Desperado scores.
