EBF's Tournament Calendar

Tournament format

The participants each play 6 qualifying games in the American style. Multiple starts are allowed (re-entry). After every 2 games, there is a lane change of 4 lanes to the right for the even lane pair and 4 lanes to the left for the odd lane pair.
The tournament has 1 ranking (classifications):
- A handicap ranking according to the Swissbowling table
In case of a tie, the best last game scratch will be counted.
The best 32 players and 4 players from the Desperados qualify for the final.
This will be held in different steps.

-Desperado:
1 game following the last qualifying round without lane maintenance. The 4 best players from the Desperado qualify for the Final Step 1.

-Final Step 1:
places 5 to 32 plus the 4 qualifiers from the Desperado play 4 matches. Starting from scratch

-Final Step 2:
The 16 best players and the 4 best players from the qualification play 4 matches. Starting from scratch

- Final Step 3:
The top 8 players compete in a Petersen Final.
(and carry over 50% of the points from Step 2)

Tournament tie rules

The highest positioned athlete will be the athlete scoring the highest last scratch game. If a tie still exists, the highest positioned athlete will be the athlete with the highest second last game etc.
